

NOTE: (1)

ST. CHARLES.

I WOULD respectfully call the attention of my friends to the public generally, to the fact that I am daily receiving numerous applications for membership in the Knights of Pythias and Knights Templars lodges, selected in New York with the view of extending the order also daily receiving German, Prussian, Swiss, and French members, and that the season, all of which I am, pleased to announce, is surpassed by any former season. Responding to the motto of the order, to be true to the country.
 I am, Sir, Very Respectfully,
 Yours,
 J. C. BZL PUGH.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1856.

DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHANT!

Buchanan and Breckinridge our next President and Vice President.

The Union Saved!

The Constitution Vindicated.

Enough is now known to render it certain that the Democracy have triumphed, and that Buchanan and Breckinridge have been elected President and Vice President of the United States for the next four years.

We congratulate the Democracy of Kentucky and the friends of the Constitution and the Union everywhere.

This result secures the integrity of the Union, and the Constitutional rights of every section of the Confederacy.

The following States, there is every reason to believe, have cast their votes for the Democracy, which give an electoral vote of 173. It requires only 146 to elect:

PENNSYLVANIA, ALABAMA, MISSISSIPPI, LOUISIANA, NEW JERSEY, GEORGIA, VIRGINIA, ARKANSAS, MISSOURI, ILLINOIS, TENNESSEE, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA.

It is a glorious triumph, and well may the Democracy rejoice.

THE VOTE OF KENTUCKY.
